This policy addresses the information we collect, how we use it and how we protect it. PROTECTING YOUR INFORMATION

Forever Living.com uses a secure server. The secure server software (SSL) encrypts ALL of the information you provide to us, including your name, address and credit card number, before it is sent to us so that it cannot be read as it travels to us over the internet. Once we receive it, all of the customer information we collect is protected against unauthorized access. We do this by following these following steps:

1. Firewall – Forever Living.com’s systems are protected 24 hours a day by a powerful firewall that blocks unauthorized entry. In order to gain access to authorized information, the Web browser you are using must know the proper protocol, or language.
2. Encryption – From the moment information leaves your computer to the time it enters our systems, all online access is encrypted. We employ some of the strongest forms of encryption commercially available for use on the Web today. During any transfer of data, our 128-bit encryption turns your information into a coded sequence with billions of possible variations, making it nearly impossible for unwanted intruders to decipher.
3. Password protected - Your Forever Living.com account is password protected. Timed log-off - Forever Living.com's system will automatically log you off from our site after 30 minutes of inactivity. This reduces the risk of others accessing your information from your unattended computer.
4. Employee access – We limit employee access to customer information to those who have a business reason to know this information.

Although we intend to take all reasonable steps to prevent the introduction of viruses and other destructive materials or hackers, we cannot and do not guarantee or warrant that this website, or materials that may be downloaded from this website, do not contain such destructive features. We are not liable for any damages or harm attributable to any of the foregoing.

Forever Living.com may share any of your information with companies that provide services to us, including companies that operate outside of the United States. Forever Living.com does not share your personal information with any outside companies or vendors EXCEPT those that are directly related to your FLP business. Any nonaffiliated companies that act on our behalf and receive personal information from us are contractually obligated to keep the information we provide to them confidential.

Third parties could include Government entities, courts or other entities (in response to subpoenas and other legal processes), and those with whom you have requested us to share information.
We may disclose the information we collect, with nonaffiliated third parties that are acting on our behalf, including companies that perform support services for us, such as data processors, technical systems consultants and programmers or companies that provided services and products for our Forever Business Owners (“FBO”).

LINKS TO OTHER WEBSITES

Forever Living.com contains links to other third party websites. These websites provide our customers with additional information that may make your Forever Living.com shopping experience more beneficial. All of these websites are owned and operated independently of Forever Living.com. Each has their own separate privacy and data collection policies. Forever Living.com has no responsibility or liability whatsoever for the independent actions or policies of these independent websites and is not responsible for the content or practices of such websites.

OPTING-OUT OF E-MAILS

Forever Living.com collects email addresses at various points in the website. Most of these areas collect email addresses in a separate database, each with its own "opt-out" option. Providing your email address in most of these areas may be optional. If at any time you wish to stop receiving any promotional email messages from us, simply change the opt-out option in your registration record.

REFUND POLICY FOR RETAIL CUSTOMERS

Retail customers are guaranteed 100% product satisfaction. Within thirty (30) days from the date of purchase, a Retail Customer may (a) obtain a new replacement for any defective product; or (b) cancel the purchase, return the product and obtain a full refund of the purchase price, excluding shipping costs. In all cases, proper notice, proof of timely purchase and timely return of the product is required to be given to source of purchase. FLP reserves the right to reject repetitive returns.

When FLP products are acquired from or through an FLP Forever Business Owner (“FBO”) that FBO is the primary party responsible for customer satisfaction by exchanging the product or refunding the money. In the event a dispute occurs, FLP will determine the facts and resolve the issue. If cash is disbursed by FLP, the same will be charged back to the FLP FBO who benefited from the product sales.

EXCHANGE AND REFUND POLICY FOR FOREVER BUSINESS OWNERS (“FBO”)

During the respective stated periods of warranty and guarantee, FLP will provide a new replacement of the same such product in exchange for the defective product or for one that has been returned to a Forever Business Owner (“FBO”) by a Retail Customer for lack of satisfaction. Such replacement shall be subject to validation of presented proof of timely purchase. In addition, for replacements of products to a FBO for product returns by Retail Customers, a proof of sale to the Retail Customer and written proof of cancellation along with a signed receipt for return of funds as well as the return of product or empty containers will be required. Such purchases must have been by the party returning the product. Repetitive returns of product by the same parties will be rejected.

Forever Living.com shall buy back any unsold, salable FLP product that has been purchased within the previous twelve (12) months from any FBO who terminates their FLP business. Such buy back will be accomplished by the terminating FBO first giving written notice to FLP of their intent to terminate their FLP business and forego all rights and privileges relating thereto. The terminating FBO must complete a product return form and return all products for which a refund is being claimed, along with proof of purchase to FLP. When product is returned by a terminating FBO, all bonuses and case credits received by the terminating FBO’s up-line for the products returned, will be deducted from the up-line. If the case credits were used for any level move-ups of the FBO or up-line, those move-ups should remain in force. After verification of the facts, the terminating FBO will receive a refund check from FLP in the amount equal to the FBO’s cost of the products being returned, less the bonuses personally received by them from their original purchase and the cost of handling, freight and any other appropriate setoffs. After recouping any costs or damages resulting from the terminated FBO’s adverse conduct, if any, FLP will remove the FBO from the FLP Marketing Plan, and their entire down-line organization will move up directly under the terminating FBO’s Sponsor in their current generation sequence.

The “Buy-Back Rule” is designated to impose upon the Sponsor and the Company the obligation to ensure that the sponsored FBO is buying products wisely. FBOs may not buy more product than they can use for their business and personal needs. The Sponsor should make every effort to provide recommended guidelines to FBOs so that they purchase only as much product as is required to meet immediate sales needs, and that additional products be purchased only after 75% of that product inventory has been sold, consumed or otherwise utilized. Products previously certified as having been sold, consumed or utilized shall not be subject to repurchase under the “Buy-Back Rule”.

FBOs should refer to the current Company Policies through the link on www.foreverliving.com or contact Customer Service at (888) 440-2563 from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. M.S.T.
