SHARING INFORMATION WITH THIRD PARTIES

Forever Living.com does not sell, trade or rent your information to any unrelated third party. As a Distributor you agree that we may share your contact information with all of your upline Sponsor(s).

By requesting to be internationally sponsored into another country, a Distributor consents and agrees for the company to transfer any personal information, provided in connection with one's Distributorship, to its foreign country's database(s). All personal information transferred will be protected and governed in accordance with the company's privacy policies.

There are other situations when we may disclose to third parties the customer information we collect as permitted by law. Third parties could include government entities, courts or other entities (in response to subpoenas and other legal processes), and those with whom you have requested us to share information.

We may disclose the information we collect, with nonaffiliated third parties that are acting on our behalf, including companies that perform support services for us, such as data processors, technical systems consultants and programmers or companies that provided services and products for our distributors.

These websites provide our customers with additional information that may make your Forever Living.com shopping experience more beneficial. All of these websites are owned and operated independently of Forever Living.com. Each have their own separate privacy and data collection policies. Forever Living.com has no responsibility or liability whatsoever for the independent actions or policies of these independent websites and is not responsible for the content or practices of such websites.

OPTING-OUT OF EMAILS

Forever Living.com collects email addresses at various points in the website. Most of these areas collect email addresses in a separate database, each with its own "opt-out" option. EXCHANGE & REFUND POLICY FOR DISTRIBUTORS

During the respective stated periods of warranty and guarantee, FLP will provide a new replacement of the same such product in exchange for the defective product or for one that has been returned to a distributor by a Retail Customer for lack of satisfaction. Such replacement shall be subject to validation of presented proof of timely purchase. In addition, for replacements of products to a distributor for product returns by Retail Customers, a proof of sale to the Retail Customer and written proof of cancellation along with a signed receipt for return of funds as well as the return of product or empty containers will be required. Such purchase must have been by the party returning the product. Repetitive returns of product by the same parties will be rejected.

FLP shall buy back any unsold, salable FLP product that has been purchased within the previous twelve

(12) months from any FLP distributor who terminates their FLP Distributorship. Such buy back will be accomplished by the terminating distributor first giving written notice to FLP of their intent to terminate their FLP Distributorship and forgo all rights and privileges relating thereto. The terminating distributor must complete a Product Return form and return all product for which a refund is being claimed, along with proof of purchase to FLP. When product is returned by a terminating distributor, all bonuses and case credits received by the terminating distributor's upline for the products returned, will be deducted from the upline. If the case credits were used for any level move-ups of the distributor or upline, those move-ups will be re-calculated after deducting the case credits to determine if the move-ups should remain in force. After verification of the facts, the distributor will receive a refund check from FLP in the amount equal to the distributor's cost of the products being returned, less the bonuses personally received by them from their original purchase and the cost of handling, freight and any other appropriate setoffs. After recouping any costs or damages resulting from the terminated distributor's adverse conduct, if any, FLP will remove the distributor from the FLP Marketing Plan, and their entire downline organization will move up directly under the terminating distributor's Sponsor in their current generation sequence.

The "Buy Back Rule" is designed to impose upon the Sponsor and the Company the obligation to ensure that the sponsored distributor is buying products wisely. Distributors may not buy more product than they can use for their business and personal needs. The Sponsor should make every effort to provide recommended guidelines to Distributors so that they purchase only as much product as is required to meet immediate sales needs, and that additional products be purchased only after 75% of that product's inventory has been sold, consumed or otherwise utilized. Products previously certified as having been sold, consumed or utilized shall not be subject to repurchase under the "Buy Back Rule."
