INTRODUCTION

- 1.01 (a) (i) Forever Living Products (FLP) is an international family of companies that produce and market exclusive health and beauty products throughout the world through its unique concept that encourages and supports the use and retail sales of its products through independent Forever Business Owners (FBO). FLP provides each FBO with the best quality products, support staff and marketing plan in the industry. The affiliated companies and their products provide an opportunity for both consumer and FBOs to improve the quality of their lives from use of FLP products, and equal access to success to anyone willing to properly work the program. Unlike most business opportunities, there is little financial risk to FLP's participants, since no minimum capital investment is required, and the Company provides a liberal buy back policy.
- (ii) Forever Living Imports (India) Private Limited (which is referred to in this manual as "Company") is a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956 and has its registered office in Mumbai, India. The Company has been appointed as the nationwide distributor of the internationally known global products ("FLP products") of Aloe Vera of America, Inc. ("AVA") for India and imports these products from AVA into India. The Company will sell the FLP products either directly or through its designated distributor ("Designated Distributor"). However, all other responsibilities, including disbursement of bonuses would be undertaken by the Company. The Company or the Designated Distributor will sell the FLP products to the Forever Business Owners at prices recommended in accordance with Forever Living's Marketing Plan ("FLP Marketing Plan") and shall not exceed the maximum retail price of the FLP Products.
- (b) Our company does not represent that a Forever Business Owner will achieve financial success without working or by relying solely on the efforts of others. Compensation in FLP is based upon the sale of its products. Each FBO is an independent contractor whose success or failure depends on personal effort.
- (c) FLP has a long history of success. The fundamental goal of the Forever Living Marketing Plan is to promote the sale and use of high quality products to consumers. The primary purpose of the FBO is to promote the sale and use of these products to consumers, directly and by building a sales organization.

- (d) The Forever Business Owner regardless of his/her level in the FLP Marketing Plan is encouraged to make retail sales each month and to keep records of such sales. With reference to the Direct Selling Guidelines 2016, clause 5.5, a direct seller shall keep proper book of accounts stating the details of the products, price, tax and the quantity and such other details in respect of the goods sold by him/her, in such form as per applicable law.
 - (e) A successful Forever Business Owner gains current knowledge of the market by attending training meetings, maintaining personal retail customers, and sponsoring other FBOs to sell to retail customers.
 - (f) The Forever Business Owner who has questions or needs clarification should contact his/her sponsor and upline managers or the Country Head Office Staff at admin@flpindia.net or flpindia@flpindia.net
- 1.02
- (a) Company Policies and the Code of Professional Conduct have been implemented to provide restrictions, rules and regulations for proper sales and marketing procedures and to prevent improper, abusive or illegal acts. Such Company Policies and the Code of Professional Conduct are revised, modified and added to, from time to time and periodic updates are printed in the monthly newsletter issued by the Company with their effective dates. Revisions, modifications or amendments to the Company Policies and the Code of Professional Conduct shall be published on the FLP Company website at www.foreverliving.com and shall become effective 30 days after publication.
 - (b) Each Forever Business Owner has an obligation to become familiar with the Company Policies and the Code of Professional Conduct in existence at the time of enrollment and as revised, modified or amended by the Company.
 - (c) Each Forever Business Owner, upon signing the FBO Application Form, whether in physical forms with pre-printed ID numbers or printed from the official online registration site, agrees to abide by the Company Policies and the Code of Professional Conduct. Language therein specifically refers to the FBO's contractual commitment to follow the Company Policies and the Code of Professional Conduct. The placing of orders for product with the Company or the Designated Distributor is a reaffirmation of such commitment to abide by the Company Policies and the Code of Professional Conduct. (Refer to 17.01a for FBO Application Process). Any acts or lack of action, which results in a misuse, misrepresentation or violation of the Company Policies and/or the Code of Professional Conduct, may cause termination of the license granted to use FLP's registered trademarks, service marks, and other marks, including the right to buy and distribute FLP products.

- (d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, any revision, modification, amendment to, or termination of (a) the Dispute Resolution/Waiver of Jury Trial agreement contained in these Company Policies and the Code of Professional Conduct (Section 18.01) and/or (b) the agreements contained in the Dispute Resolution Policy referenced therein and available on FLP's Company website: www.foreverliving.com, shall not apply to a dispute of which the Company has actual notice of prior to the effective date of any such revision, modification, amendment or termination. The effective date of any such revision, modification, amendment or termination shall be 30 days after the revision, modification, amendment or termination is posted or from the effective date, as applicable.

- (c) When FLP products are acquired from or through an FBO, that FBO is the primary party responsible for customer satisfaction by exchanging the product or refunding the money. In the event there is a dispute, FLP will determine the facts and resolve the issue. If cash is disbursed by FLP, the same will be charged back to the FBO(s) who benefited from the product sale.

3.04 During the respective stated periods of warranty and guarantee, the Company will provide a new replacement of the same such product in exchange for a defective product or for one that has been returned to a Forever Business Owner by a Retail Customer for lack of satisfaction provided that such product has been certified as not having been consumed or sold. Such replacement shall be subject to validation of presented proof of timely purchase. Such purchase must have been by the FBO returning the product. In addition, for replacements of products to an FBO for product returns by Retail Customers, a proof of sale to the Retail Customer and written proof of cancellation along with a signed receipt for return of funds as well as the return of product or empty containers will be required. Repetitive returns of product by the same parties may be rejected. The Company shall ensure that the policy with regard to replacement of defective products shall be adhered to by the Designated Distributor or the FBO from whom products have been purchased by the retail customer.

- (a) The Company shall buy back any unsold, saleable FLP product, except literature, that has been purchased by the Forever Business Owner in his ID within the previous twelve (12) months from any FBO who terminates his/her Forever Business. Such buy back will be accomplished by the terminating FBO first giving written notice to the Company of intent to terminate the Forever Business and forgo all rights and privileges relating thereto. The terminating FBO must complete a product return form and submit the same to the Company and return all products for which a refund is being claimed, along with proof of purchase, to the source of purchase. All FLP Products are tagged to the invoice it was purchased under. In this regard all returning products must track back to their original invoice of purchase. The Company shall ensure that the policy with regard to unsold saleable product upon termination of the Forever Business shall be adhered to by the Designated Distributor from whom products have been purchased by the FBO.
- (b) If the product returned by a terminating Forever Business Owner was purchased at Forever Preferred Customer Price (PCP), recommended by the company, the Forever Preferred Customer Profit will be deducted from the FBO to whom it was paid and, if the product returned is greater than 1CC, all Bonuses and Case Credits received by the terminating FBO's upline for the products returned, will be deducted from the upline. If the Case Credits were used for any level move-ups of the FBO or upline, those move-ups may be re-calculated after deducting the Case Credits to determine if the move-ups should remain in force.
- (c) If a terminating Forever Business Owner returns any Combination Pak, and it is missing some product, the refund and the deductions from the upline will be calculated as if the entire Combo Pak was returned, and then the Wholesale or Forever Preferred Customer Price of the missing components will be deducted from the refund issued.
- (d) In the event a Forever Business Owner or a Forever Preferred Customer reconsiders his purchase of any FLP product and wants to cancel this purchase and return any saleable product to the Company or its Designated Distributor, he/she can do so within fifteen (15) days of purchase of the product. After verification of the facts, the FBO will receive a refund cheque from the Company in the amount equal to the FBO's cost of the products being returned, less the bonuses personally received and the cost of handling, freight and any other appropriate setoffs.

- (e) After recouping any costs or damages resulting from the terminated Forever Business Owner's adverse conduct, if any, the Company will remove the FBO from the Forever Living Marketing Plan, and his/her entire downline organization will move up directly under the terminating FBO's Sponsor in the current generation sequence.

3.06 The "Buy Back Rule" is designed to impose upon the Sponsor and the Company the obligation to ensure that the Forever Business Owner is buying products wisely. FBOs may not buy more products than he/she can use for his/her business and personal needs. The Sponsor should make every effort to provide recommended guidelines to the FBO so that he/she purchases only as much product as is required to meet immediate sales needs and that additional products be purchased only after 75% of that product inventory has been sold, consumed or otherwise utilized. Products previously certified as having been sold, consumed or utilized shall not be subject to repurchase under the "Buy Back Rule." In view of the above the Direct Selling Guidelines, clause 5.6.f, states that the Direct Sellers should not purchase, nor encourage others to purchase products in unreasonably large quantities.

- (b) A Forever Business Owner is considered an Independent Contractor, and is required to conduct his/her business within the terms of the Forever Business Agreement, and in compliance with the Company Policies and the Code of Professional Conduct that are applicable in the country in which he/she is conducting business. All Independent Contractors must also comply with the law of the land in running their business.

(c) A Forever Business consists of the person(s) named on the Forever Business Owner Application on file at the Home Office.

(i) Forever Business with 2 names on the FBO Application, which was set up prior to 1st April 2015, may opt to become single name FBO Application after requesting for the spouse name to be deleted from the FBO Application. In this event, the deleted spouse can sign another FBO Application only under the spouse's ID at the level of Forever Preferred Customer. Such FBO Application will not be allowed to avail the Forever Preferred Customer 6 month sponsor change policy.

If the spouse of a legally married FBO wishes to create his/her own Forever Business, he/she must do so by sponsoring directly under his/her spouse or directly under the spouse's Sponsor.

(d) A Forever Business Owner shall be held responsible to properly manage his/her Forever Business, specifically, but not limited to, preventing Family members from using information obtained through such Forever Business, to circumvent compliance of Company Policies and the Code of Professional Conduct required or evolving from the Forever Business of the FBO. An FBO's failure to properly manage his/her Forever Business may result in termination.

(e) In the event that the downlines of a Forever Business Owner sponsor into a foreign country and the FBO has not previously been sponsored into that country, the FBO will be automatically sponsored into that foreign country and agrees to the prevailing policies and local laws of that foreign country and agrees to be bound by the dispute resolution policies set forth herein.

17.02 The Company agrees to sell the Forever Business Owner product through its Designated Distributor and pay volume bonuses as provided in the Company Marketing Plan, provided the FBO is not in violation of such FBO's contract with the company.

17.03 A Forever Business Owner may develop his/her own marketing techniques, so long as he/she is not in violation of any Company, state, federal or jurisdictional rules, regulations or statutes. In view of this the Direct Seller is obligated to comply with the Direct Selling Guidelines 2016, clauses 5.6.a and 5.6.d, where he/she must not present marketing techniques or advantages of Direct Selling in a misleading, deceptive manner or follow unfair trade practices.

17.04 Any transfer other than by inheritance of a Forever Business, without prior Company approval, is prohibited and any such transfer shall be void. For the purpose of this provision, a change of beneficial interest of a Trust held Forever Business shall be treated as a transfer, which requires written approval by the Company to be valid.

- 17.05 Except as herein provided, a Forever Business Owner is prohibited from, directly or indirectly, changing Sponsors. The Company will only consider the first valid FBO Application signed and received in original by the Company or its Designated Distributor. Subsequent FBO Applications shall be disallowed.
- 17.06 When a Forever Business Owner changes residence to a different country, he/she must notify the old country of residence so that the address can be changed and a new Home Country assigned.
- 17.07 Errors or Questions. If a Forever Business Owner has questions about or believes any errors have been made regarding bonuses, downline activity reports, charges, or changes, the FBO must notify the Company within sixty (60) days of the date of the purported error or incident in question. The Company is not responsible for any errors, omissions or problems not reported within sixty (60) days.
- 17.08 Voluntary Termination.
- (a) A Forever Business Owner may terminate his/her Forever Business by submitting a written request, signed by all named individuals appearing on the current approved Forever Business. The effective termination date is the date on which the Company processes the termination request. The terminating FBO forfeits the current sales level and all downlines, including those in foreign countries, established at the time.
 - (b) Once a Forever Business Owner terminates, the spouse (if on the same FBO Business) is also considered terminated.
 - (c) After 12 months, a terminated Forever Business Owner may reapply subject to the company's approval. Upon such approval the FBO will enter at the Forever Preferred Customer, and will not have the previous downline organization restored.
 - (d) If the terminating FBO is a Sponsored Recognized Manager and has any 1st Generation Recognized Managers in his/her organization, these Managers will be classified as Inherited Managers to the newly appointed Sponsor.
 - (e) The Terminated Sponsored Recognized Manager will continue to count towards his/her previous Sponsor's Manager pin level.
- 17.09 Termination or Suspension for Cause.
- (a) Termination means a severance of all domestic and international privileges and contractual rights available to a Forever Business Owner, including the privilege to buy and distribute the products. The Termination will result in the inability to qualify for Bonuses, and severance of participation in all other benefit programs sponsored by the Company.

- (b) A terminated Forever Business Owner shall, upon demand by the Company, be liable to repay, return or compensate the Company for any benefit programs, prizes, inventories, or bonuses received from the Company from and after the date of the activities causing such Termination. After recouping any costs or damages resulting from the terminated FBO's conduct, forfeited bonuses, caused by such Termination, shall be paid to the next qualifying FBO upline who is not in violation of any of the Company Policies and the Code of Professional Conduct.
- (c) After one year (12 months), a terminated Forever Business Owner may reapply subject to Home Office approval. Upon such approval the FBO will enter as a Forever Preferred Customer, and will not have the previous downline organization restored.
- (d) Suspension is a temporary status that prohibits a Forever Business Owner from placing orders and may prohibit them from receiving profit and bonus payments, and sponsoring other FBOs.
- (e) The profits and bonuses of a Suspended Forever Business Owner shall be held until the FBO is either reinstated or terminated. If reinstated, the withheld payments shall be paid to the FBO; otherwise they shall be disbursed in accordance to the marketing plan.
- (f) If the terminated FBO is a Sponsored Recognized Manager and has any 1st Generation Recognized Managers in his/her organization, these Managers will be classified as Inherited Managers to the newly appointed Sponsor.
- (g) The Terminated Sponsored Recognized Manager will continue to count towards his/her previous Sponsor's Manager pin level.

17.10 Internet Policies.

- (a) Selling Products Online. Each Forever Business Owner will be offered the opportunity to purchase a Company-approved FBO website, FLP360, for marketing products and the business opportunity. Online orders will be fulfilled only on the Designated Distributors webstore through www.foreverliving.com. This internet link is arranged so that the FLP pages will remain within the FBO's website. The guests virtually never leave the FBO's website. In order to maintain the integrity of FLP's brand name, product line and the FBO/Customer relationship, an FBO is prohibited from selling any FLP brand products online through an independent website. E-Commerce sales can only be made directly by or through a link to the Designated Distributors Company webstore at www.foreverliving.com.
- (b) Sponsoring a Forever Business Owner online via an online FBO Application is prohibited outside of the direct application or link to the official Company website at www.foreverliving.com.

- (c) A Forever Business Owner may not use the name “Forever Living Products” or any of its trademarks, trade names, product names, domain name (URL) or copy or use any Company materials from any source that may result in misleading or confusing the user into thinking the FBO’s website is that of the Company or any of its official affiliates. FLP product names are strictly proprietary to the Company and cannot be used by any FBO as a sponsored link or for any other unauthorized use. An individual FBO website must clearly indicate that it represents an Independent Forever Business Owner who is not an agent of the Company or any of its worldwide affiliates.
- (d) Electronic Advertising. Independent Forever Business Owner websites that have been approved by the Company, or are as part of an online banner or display ads that conform to the Company’s advertising guidelines and have been approved by Company, will be allowed. Online banners or display ads must be submitted to the Company for approval prior to posting online and must link a user to the Company website or an independent FBO website that has been approved by the Company. All electronic advertising is subject to and controlled by the Company Policies and the Code of Professional Conduct relating to advertising and promotional guidelines.

17.11 Compliance of all Indian laws and Independent Forever Business Owner:

- (a) The Forever Business Owner is an independent non-exclusive contractor/FBO and not an agent, employee, partner or legal representative of the Company for any purpose whatsoever. Each FBO shall be responsible for his/her own business, and shall comply with Indian laws including but not limited to the Central, State and local statutes and regulations and all applicable laws including licensing and taxation laws etc. The Forever Business Owner shall be solely responsible for all payments for any goods or services supplied to the FBO in the course of the business.
- (b) The Company is legally bound to make any bonus payments that may be due to only those Forever Business Owners who are Indian Residents and hold a valid Permanent Account Number (“PAN”) for income tax purposes. Any such payments will be held back by the Company until proof of PAN is provided to the Company. The Company may, at its discretion, make bonus payments to Forever Business Owners (who have not furnished their PAN details) after withholding tax at a rate of 20 percent plus applicable surcharge and education cess (if any) of such accrued bonus payments for a short period.
- (c) Bonuses and/or incentives earned by the Forever Business Owners are inclusive of all government taxes and levies (direct and indirect).

LEGAL

18.01 Grievance Redressal/Dispute Resolution/Waiver of Jury Trial.

- (a) If a grievance, complaint, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to the Forever Business Owner relationship or FLP products, this should first be resolved by negotiations. The company encourages its FBOs to first contact the sponsor and his/her upline managers to resolve any such complaints or disputes. If their complaints are not addressed to their satisfaction, the company invites them to lodge their complaints with the 'Grievance Redressal Committee' which has been set up in conformation of the Direct Selling Guidelines 2016, clause 7.4 and all its sub clauses.

The Grievance Redressal Committee will be responsible for addressing all complaints submitted to the Company related to the Forever business. This Committee comprises of following 3 officers of the company –

- Country Sales Manager -
Mr. Harish Singla
- Director -
Mrs. Nikita Naterwalla
- Sr. Head of Finance & Company Secretary -
Mr. Vishal Tibrewal

Under the guidance of this Committee, all grievances recorded either by FBOs or Customers shall be addressed directly by the Company.

If these cannot be resolved, the Company and FBO agree that in order to promote to the fullest extent reasonably possible a mutually amicable resolution of the dispute in a timely, efficient and cost-effective manner, he/she will waive his/her respective rights to a trial by jury and settle the dispute by submitting the dispute to the Local Arbitration, in Mumbai, India, in accordance with the written procedures adopted by the Company for resolution of disputes in accordance with the written Dispute Resolution Policy currently in effect and available on the Company's website at www.foreverliving.com. Mumbai, India shall be deemed the sole and exclusive place for jurisdiction and venue of any dispute between the company and the FBO, and if appropriate, under the Company's dispute resolution procedures, a court of competent jurisdiction located in Mumbai, India. The Forever Business Owner Application and Agreement shall be governed in all respects by the laws of India.

For the purpose of investigation of any disputes raised, the Company will send, in writing, queries arising during the process of the investigation in order to provide a fair hearing to both parties of the dispute. The FBO is obligated to respond to all the queries raised by the Company within the stipulated time period stated in the letter/notice. In the event no response is received from the FBO despite two (2) reminders, the Company will remain within its right to deem such silence as acceptance of the accusations raised against the FBO and on the basis of which the FBO can be held liable for Suspension or Termination by the Company.

- (b) Participating in the international sponsoring program is a privilege that gives each Forever Business Owner the chance to benefit from FLP's international network of companies. The international sponsoring program is monitored from FLP's home office in Maricopa County, Arizona. An FBO participating in the international sponsoring program agrees and consents to any disputes arising out of or relating to the FBO relationship or FLP products, involving any of the FLP affiliated companies, shall be resolved through binding arbitration in Maricopa County, Arizona, pursuant to www.foreverliving.com and Forever Living Products International, LLC's current dispute resolution policies as set forth above and stated on FLP's Company website at www.foreverliving.com.

18.02 Testamentary Transfers.

- (a) The transfer or assignment of a Forever Business is prohibited except in the event of death or legal separation or divorce.
- (b) All Forever Business Owner Applications that contain two signatures, regardless of when signed, shall be treated as creating a Joint Tenancy with Right of Survivorship. If the Forever Business Owner lives in a community property state, the treatment will be that of Community Property with Right of Survivorship. On the confirmation of death of any one of the two signing FBOs, the Forever Business will automatically be transferred to the survivor of the two. This will be the case regardless of what is stated in a Will of the first FBO to be deceased. In addition, this means that when two persons have signed on the Forever Business Owner Application the survivor of the two will be the sole FBO after the death of the first. If an FBO does not wish this result, they must contact the Home Office to express his/her needs and to determine if such needs can be accommodated. Keep in mind that no change in a Forever Business can be made during your lifetime except in the case of a legal separation or divorce.

- (c) If the Forever Business Owner Application of a legally married person has checked the marital status box as being Married, but the application only contains the signature of one of the married parties, the company will treat the Forever Business as being a Joint Tenancy with Right of Survivorship.
- (d) Forever Business Owner Applications that have the marital status box checked as being single and with only one signature will be treated by the company accordingly.
- (e) To transfer a single person's Forever Business on death, such Forever Business Owner must have a Will or use of a Grantor's Trust.
- (f) The Company recognizes Joint Tenancy with Right of Survivorship and use of Grantor Trusts as legal means of holding a Forever Business and in the event of a Forever Business Owner's death, a means of transferring the Forever Business to the Survivor or named beneficiary respectively without having to go through probate proceeding to get the property to the intended heir.
- (g) If the Forever Business is held in a Business Entity, the death of the primary shareholder will not remove the Forever Business from the Business Entity so long as the ownership of the Business Entity remains in conformity with Company policies governing ownership of such Business Entity. The transfer will be recognized by the Company when a court order or legal documents addressing the transfer are submitted to and approved by the Company.
- (h) Within six (6) months following the date of Forever Business Owner's death, the surviving FBO, trustee or estate representative shall provide notification of such death to his/her Domestic Home Office of FLP. Such notice is to include a certified copy of the death certificate, a certified copy of the Will or Grantor's Trust, or Court Order, authorizing the transfer of Forever Business to a qualified successor. After six (6) months from the date of death, FLP may remove the deceased Forever Business Owner from the Forever Business. Giving timely notification and providing the required documentation for a successor's interest, will be required to prevent a suspension and/or termination of the Forever Business. If based on valid reasons, a request for a reasonable extension of time to provide transfer documents may be submitted to the deceased FBO's FLP Domestic Home Office prior to the end of the six (6) month period. FLP reserves the right to make payments to the joint survivor, beneficiary, trustee or legally authorized personal representative of the estate of a deceased FBO pending the timely submission of appropriate legal documentation.
- (i) The inheritable rights to a Forever Business are limited and restricted as follows:

- 1) The heir must be a person who can qualify as a Forever Business Owner.
- 2) Because the heir must be an adult individual, a trust or guardianship may have to be established for multiple heirs or minor children. In the event a trust is established, a copy must be placed on file with FLP. Its terms must clearly allow the trustee to act as an FBO. A guardian or a trustee of a testamentary trust must be appointed by the court of proper jurisdiction and receive specific approval to be an FBO on behalf of the minors.
- 3) A trustee or guardian shall retain the FBO status so long as the Forever Business Owner agreement is not violated, until the beneficiaries have attained the age of majority, and an heir accepts the responsibility of operating the Forever Business with prior approval of the court.
- 4) A trustee, guardian, spouse or other representative-type Forever Business Owner shall be responsible for the actions of the beneficiary, ward, or his/her spouse for purposes of following the policy terms of the Forever Business Owner agreement. A violation of Company Policies and the Code of Professional Conduct by any of the above individuals may result in termination of the Forever Business.
- 5) The inheritable Forever Business position within the Company Marketing Plan is limited to recognition at no higher than that of Manager. However, bonuses shall be paid at the same levels and requirements as held by the deceased. All Sponsored Managers belonging to the Forever Business will be reclassified as Inherited Managers, who can subsequently qualify as a Sponsored Managers as outlined in Section 5.04(e). Forever Business positions below Manager shall be inherited at that level.

18.03 Transfers Due to Divorce.

- (a) During a pending divorce or negotiation of a property settlement, the Company will continue to disburse payments to the Forever Business Owner as was done prior to the pending action.
- (b) In the event of divorce or a legal separation, a legally enforceable property settlement agreement may decree the Forever Business be granted to one spouse or the other. The Forever Business cannot, however, be partitioned. Only one adult individual will be entitled to retain the current downline of this Forever Business. The other spouse may choose to establish their own Forever Business at the same level of the Marketing Plan as established with the ex-spouse. Such other spouse must use the original sponsor. The other spouse's new Forever Business shall be treated by the sponsor as Inherited until re-qualified.

All Marks are and shall remain the exclusive property of “FLP”. The Marks may only be used as authorized by the Forever Business Owner Agreement and the Company’s corresponding policies and procedures. The license granted herein shall be effective only as long as the FBO is in good standing and in full compliance with FLP's policies and procedures. However, it is prohibited for an FBO to claim any ownership of FLP's Marks (i.e., registering for a domain name using the name "FLP", "Forever Living", or any other FLP Mark in any way, shape or form) unless it has been approved in writing by FLP. These Marks are of great value to FLP and are supplied to each FBO for each FBO's use in an expressly authorized manner only.

- (c) Forever Business Owners may not use any written, printed, recorded or any other material in advertising, promoting or describing the product or FLP marketing program, or in any other manner, any material which has not been copyrighted and supplied by FLP, unless such material has been submitted to FLP and approved in writing by FLP before being disseminated, published or displayed.
- (d) FBOs may not alter any packaging, labels, or directions for use for any FLP Products, or recommend that a Product be used in any way other than as indicated by the Company literature.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION AND NONDISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

- 20.01 (a) Downline reports and all other reports and genealogical information, including, but not limited to, downline sales organization information and commission recap statements, are private, proprietary and confidential to FLP.
- (b) Every Forever Business Owner who is provided with such information must treat it as private and confidential and take care to maintain its secrecy and refrain from making any use thereof for any purpose other than the management of his/her downline sales organization.

- (g) A Forever Business Owner is prohibited from, directly or indirectly, using, capitalizing upon or exploiting any Trade Secret or Confidential Information for his/her own benefit, or for the benefit of anyone else, other than for the purpose of conducting his/her FLP business.

- (h) A Forever Business Owner shall maintain the confidentiality and security of the Trade Secret and Confidential Information in his/her possession and to protect against disclosure, misuse, misappropriation or any other action inconsistent with the Company's rights.
- (i) Further Restrictive Covenants. In consideration to the Company for the receipt of Trade Secret or Confidential Information, the Forever Business Owner inherently agrees that for the term of the Forever Business, the FBO shall not take or encourage any action, the purpose or effect of which would be to circumvent, breach, interfere with or diminish the value or benefit of the Company's contractual relationships with any FBO. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, for the term of the Forever Business, the FBO agrees not to directly or indirectly, contact, solicit, persuade, enroll, sponsor or accept any FBO, FLP Customer or anyone who has been a Forever Business Owner or Customer for the last twelve (12) months, into, or to encourage any such person in any way to promote, opportunities in marketing programs of any direct sales company other than FLP.
