1 INTRODUCTION

1.01 (a) Forever Living Products (hereafter referred to as Forever) is an international family of companies that produce and market exclusive health and beauty products throughout the world through its unique concept that encourages and supports the use and retail sales of its products through independent Distributors. Forever provides its Distributors with the best quality products, support staff and marketing plan in the industry. The affiliated companies and their products provide an opportunity for Consumers and Distributors to improve the quality of their lives by using Forever products, and equal access to success to anyone willing to properly work the program. Unlike most business opportunities, there is little financial risk to Forever’s participants, since no minimum capital investment is required and the Company provides a liberal buy back policy.

(b) Forever does not represent that a Distributor will achieve financial success without working or by relying solely on the efforts of others. Compensation in Forever is based upon the sale of its products. Forever Distributors are independent Contractors whose success or failure depends on their personal efforts.

(c) Forever has a long history of success. The fundamental goal of Forever’s marketing plan is to promote the sale and use of high quality products to consumers. The primary purpose of Distributors is to build a sales organization to promote the sale and use of these products to consumers.

(d) Independent Distributors at all levels of the Forever Marketing Plan are encouraged to make retail sales each month and keep records of such sales.

(e) Successful Distributors gain current knowledge of the market by attending training meetings, maintaining their own personal retail customers and sponsoring others to sell retail.

(f) Distributors who have questions or need clarification should contact Distributor Support, on the Toll-free number (0)0800 - 367 38 37(1) or by mail to support@foreverliving.nl. Our website www.foreverliving.com provides you with full information.

1.02 (a) Company Policies have been implemented to provide restrictions, rules and regulations for proper sales and marketing procedures and to prevent improper, abusive or illegal acts. Such Company Policies are revised, modified and added to, from time to time.

(b) Each Distributor has an obligation to become familiar with the Company Policies.

(c) Each Distributor, upon signing the Distributor Application form, agrees to abide by Forever Company Policies. ### 3 WARRANTY, GUARANTEE, PRODUCT RETURN AND BUY BACKS

3.01 The following time periods shall apply except where modified by local law.

3.02 Forever warrants satisfaction and guarantees its products are free from defect and substantially conform to product specifications. For all Forever products exclusive of literature and promotional products, this warranty and guarantee shall be for a period ending thirty (30) days from date of purchase.

Retail Customers:

3.03 Retail Customers are guaranteed 100% product satisfaction. Within thirty (30) days from the date of purchase, a Retail Customer may

(a) obtain a new replacement for any defective product; or

(b) cancel the purchase, return the product and obtain a full refund.

In all cases, proper notice, proof of purchase and timely return of the product is required to be given to source of purchase. Forever reserves the right to reject repetitive returns.

3.04 When Forever products are acquired from or through a Forever Distributor, that Distributor is the primary party responsible for customer satisfaction by exchanging the product or refunding the money. In the Refund and Buy Back Procedure for Distributors:

3.05 During the respective stated periods of warranty and guarantee, Forever will provide a new replacement of the same such product in exchange for the defective product or for one that has been returned to a Distributor by a Retail Customer for lack of satisfaction. Such replacement shall be subject to validation of presented proof of timely purchase. Such purchase must have been by the Distributor returning the product. In addition, for replacements of products to a Distributor for product returns by Retail Customers, a proof of sale to the Retail Customer and written proof of cancellation along with a signed receipt for return of funds as well as the return of product or empty containers will be required. Repetitive returns of product by the same parties will be rejected.

3.06 (a) Forever shall buy back any unsold, salable Forever product, except literature, that has been purchased within the previous twelve (12) months from any Forever Distributor who terminates their Forever Distributorship. Such buy back will be accomplished by the terminating Distributor first giving written notice to Forever of their intent to terminate their Forever Distributorship and forgo all rights and privileges relating thereto. The terminating Distributor must complete a Product Return form and return all Products for which a refund is being claimed, along with proof of purchase to Forever. After verification of the facts, the Distributor will receive a refund from Forever in the amount equal to the Distributor’s cost of the products being returned, less the bonuses personally received by them from their original purchase and the cost of handling, including a 10% restocking fee, freight and any other appropriate setoffs.

(b) If the product returned by a terminating Distributor was purchased at New Distributor Price, the NDP profit (sponsor Margin) will be deducted from the immediate upline sponsor and, if the product returned is greater than 1 CC, all bonuses and Case Credits received by the terminating Distributor's upline for the products returned, will be deducted from the upline. If the Case Credits were used for any level move-ups of the Distributor or upline, those move-ups may be re-calculated after deducting the Case Credits to determine if the move-ups should remain in force.

(c) If a terminating Distributor returns a Start Your Biz Bestsellers Box, Touch of Forever or any other Combination Pack, and it is missing some product, the refund and the deductions from the upline will be calculated as if the entire Combo Pack was returned, and then the wholesale or NDP value of the missing components will be deducted from the refund issued.

(d) Forever will remove the terminating Distributor from the Forever Marketing Plan, and their entire Downline organization will move up directly under the terminating Distributor's Sponsor in their current generation sequence.

3.07 The “Buy Back Rule” is designed to impose upon the Sponsor and the Company the obligation to ensure that the sponsored Distributor is buying products wisely. The Sponsor should make every effort to provide recommended guidelines to Distributors so that they purchase only as much product as is required to meet immediate sales needs. Products previously certified as having been sold, consumed or utilized shall not be subject to repurchase under the “Buy Back Rule.”

on which the Benelux Home Office accepts the termination request. The terminating Distributor forfeits the current sales level and all Downlines, including those in foreign countries, established at the time.
(b) Once a Distributor terminates, the spouse (if applicable) is also considered terminated.
(c) After two years, a Distributor may reapply subject to Benelux Home Office approval. Upon such

17.10 Internet Policy

(a) Templated websites created by Forever

Each Forever Living Products (Forever) Independent Distributor will be offered the opportunity to purchase an approved template website created by Forever through foreverliving.com (MyFLPBiz). The personal Business Opportunity website may however contain a link to a MyFLPBiz website, provided the Business Opportunity template was chosen within the MyFLPBiz application. Websites created by distributors promoting and advertising Forever’s Business Opportunity are only permitted when:

- they do not contain misleading claims and statements;

- they only contain descriptions of the product range as drawn up by Forever (this general description can be obtained through the Distributor Support department and does not contain any specific information on the products);

- they do not post product pricing and do not contain a link to the web shop.

Furthermore they must comply with the rules and regulations as stated in the latest Company Policy as was published (online). Websites such as these must be approved by Forever beforehand. This is necessary to protect and enhance the name, brands and goodwill attached to Forever and for Consumer and Distributor protection.

2. Linking the personal URL directly to the MyFLPBiz page or the official webshop

- a personal domain name may link directly to a MyFLPBiz page or the official webshop on www.foreverliving.com as long as it complies with paragraph 17.10 d. A landing page is explicitly prohibited.

(c) Misrepresentation

Distributors may not mislead or confuse their visitors into thinking the distributor’s website or social media site is that of Forever or any of its official affiliates. It must be clear at all times that the online environment that is visited belongs to an independent Distributor and is not the online environment of Forever Living Products. Forever puts an Independent Distributor Logo at the disposal of its distributors.

(d) Intellectual property

Forever’s product names and trademarks are strictly proprietary to Forever and cannot be used as a name or as part of a name of any website, the title of a Social Media website/utterance, an e-mail address, a URL, a sponsored link such as a Google advertisement, or for any other unauthorised use. This includes the name of “Forever Living Products”, “Forever” and / or all of its trademarks, trade names, product names, domain names or variations thereof. As for the online use of Forever materials originating from regardless which source, permission for its use always needs approval from the head office.

(e) Websites and Social Media for the Personal Forever Business

Websites and social media pages created by distributors which specifically promote their personal Forever business must clearly state that they, the individual, are an independent Forever distributor. Moreover, any utterance via these media should only and exclusively promote Forever and refer to Forever.

(f) Online product sale

The sales, advertising, promotion or marketing of the products through online marketing media, third party websites, online malls, or auction sites such as eBay or Marktplaats, are prohibited, in order to further safeguard the interests of distributors and consumers. Distributors may not sell Forever products to anyone for the purpose of resales nor entrust others to sell Forever’s products. Failure to comply with this may result in the termination of the distributorship.
(g) Online advertisements

Online advertisements aimed at the Business Opportunity are allowed as long as they comply with Company Policy rules, legal requirements, and have Baarn Head Office approval prior to posting and do not contain links to the official web shop on www.foreverliving.com.

All product-related online banners or ‘display advertisements’ on, or links leading to shops and sites of third parties are not permitted, the only exception being the standard texts which are provided by the head office. These may be used unaltered with a link to the personal MyFLPBiz page.

(h) The use of Social Media

It must clearly state it is an Independent Distributor’s page/site and must comply with all the rules concerning advertising as mentioned in section 17.10.G. The social media page or site can link to the Forever web shop on www.foreverliving.com, as long as it is compliant. It can also be used to advertise the Business Opportunity, as long as it complies with all legal requirements.

It is the responsibility of the distributor who creates and manages these sites to ensure that all posts made by themselves and others comply. Any postings made that do not comply must be removed immediately.

Commercial Advertisements on social media sites (such as Facebook advertisements that appear on a number of other pages/sites) will only be permitted when they concern Business Opportunity advertisements and comply with paragraph 17.10.b.1.

18 LEGAL

18.01 Dispute Resolution/Waiver of Jury Trial.

(a) If a controversy or claim arising out of or relating to the Distributor relationship or Forever products cannot be resolved by negotiations, the Company and Distributor agree that in order to promote to the fullest extent reasonably possible a mutually amicable resolution of the dispute in a timely, efficient and cost-effective manner, they will waive their respective rights to a trial by jury and settle their dispute by submitting the dispute to the American Arbitration Association (AAA) for binding arbitration in Maricopa County, Arizona, in accordance with the written procedures adopted by Forever for resolution of disputes. Maricopa County, Arizona shall be deemed the sole and exclusive place for jurisdiction and venue of any dispute between the company and the Independent Distributor, and if appropriate, under Forever’s dispute resolution procedures, a court of competent jurisdiction located in the State of Arizona, Maricopa County. The Independent Distributor Application and Agreement shall be governed in all respects by the laws of the State of Arizona.

(b) Participating in the international sponsoring program is a privilege that gives each Distributor the chance to benefit from Forever’s international network of companies. The international sponsoring program is monitored from Forever’s home office in Maricopa County, Arizona. A Distributor participating in the international sponsoring program agrees and consents to any disputes arising out of or relating to the Distributor relationship or Forever products, involving any of the Forever affiliated companies, shall be resolved through binding arbitration in Maricopa County, Arizona, pursuant to Forever Living Products Netherlands B.V. and Forever Living Products International, LLC’s current dispute resolution policies as set forth above and stated on Forever’s Company website at www.foreverliving.com.

18.02 Testamentary Transfers.

(a) The transfer or assignment of a Distributorship is prohibited except in the event of death or legal separation or divorce.

(b) The inheritable rights to a Distributorship are limited and restricted as follows:

   1) The heir must be a person who can qualify as a Distributor.
   2) Because the heir must be an adult individual, a trust or guardianship may have to be established for multiple heirs or minor children. In the event a trust is established, a copy must be placed on file with Forever. Its terms must clearly allow the trustee to act as a Distributor. A guardian or a trustee of a testamentary trust must be appointed by the court of proper jurisdiction and receive specific approval to be a Distributor on behalf of the minors.
   3) A trustee or guardian shall retain the Distributor status so long as the Distributorship agreement is not violated, until the beneficiaries have attained the age of majority, and an heir accepts the responsibility of operating the Distributorship with prior approval of the court.
   4) A trustee, guardian, spouse or other representative-type Distributor shall be responsible for the actions of the beneficiary, ward, or their spouse for purposes of following the policy terms of the Distributorship agreement. A violation of Company policies by any of the above individuals may result in termination of the Distributorship.
   5) The inheritable Distributorship position within the Company Marketing Plan is limited to recognition at no higher than that of Manager. However, bonuses shall be paid at the same levels and requirements as held by the deceased. Distributorship positions below Manager shall be inherited at that level.

(c) All Forever Distributor applications that contain two signatures, regardless of when signed, shall be treated as creating a Joint Tenancy with Right of Survivorship (JTWRS). If the Distributor lives in a community property state, the treatment will be that of Community Property with Right of Survivorship. On the confirmation of death of any one of the two signing Distributors, the Forever Distributorship will automatically be transferred to the survivor of the two. This will be the case regardless of what is stated in a Will of the first Distributor to be deceased. In addition, this means that when two persons have signed on the Forever Distributor Application the survivor of the two will be the sole Distributor after the death of the first. If a Distributor does not wish this result, they must contact the Home Office to express their needs and to determine if such needs can be accommodated. Keep in mind that no change in a Distributorship can be made during your lifetime except in the case of a legal separation or divorce.

(d) If the Distributor application of a legally married person or registered partnership has checked the marital status box as being married/Registered Partnership, but the application only contains the signature of one of the married/registered parties, the company will treat the Distributorship as being a Joint Tenancy with Right of Survivorship.

(e) Distributor applications that have the marital status box checked as being single and with only one signature will be treated by the company accordingly.

1) Should there be a change in the marital status from single to married, the Distributor must send in to the Home Office a Change of Status form (COS) indicating that there has been a change of marital status accompanied by a copy of the marriage certificate or the contract of cohabitation. At that time, the Company will treat such Distributorship as a Joint Tenancy with Right of Survivorship.

2) To transfer a single person’s Forever Distributorship on death, such Distributor must have a Will or use of a Grantor’s Trust.

The Company recognizes Joint Tenancy with Right of Survivorship and use of Grantor Trusts as legal means of holding a Forever Distributorship and in the event of a Distributor’s death, a means of transferring the Distributorship to the Survivor or named beneficiary respectively without having to go through probate proceeding to get the property to the intended heir.

Within six (6) months following the date of Distributor’s death, the surviving Distributor, trustee or estate representative shall provide notification of such death to their Distributor’s Domestic Home Office of Forever. Such notice is to include a certified copy of the death certificate, a certified copy of the Will or Grantor’s Trust, or Court Order, authorizing the transfer of Distributorship to a qualified successor. After six (6) months from the date of death, Forever may remove the deceased Distributor from the Distributorship. Giving timely notification and providing the required documentation for a successor’s interest, will be required to prevent a suspension and/or termination of the Distributorship. If based on valid reasons, a request for a reasonable extension of time to provide transfer documents may be submitted to the deceased Distributor’s Forever Domestic Home Office prior to the end of the six (6) month period. Forever reserves the right to make payments to the joint survivor, trustee or legally authorized personal representative of the estate of a deceased Distributor pending the timely submission of appropriate legal documentation.

18.03 Transfers Due to Divorce.

(a) During a pending divorce or negotiation of a property settlement, Forever will continue to disburse payments to the registered Distributor as was done prior to the pending action.

(b) In the event of divorce or a legal separation, a legally enforceable property settlement agreement may decree the Distributorship be granted to one spouse or the other. The Distributorship cannot, however, be partitioned. Only one adult individual will be entitled to retain the current Downline of this Distributorship. The other spouse may choose to establish their own Distributorship at the same level of the Marketing Plan as established with the ex-spouse. Such other spouse must use the original sponsor. The other spouse’s new Distributorship shall be treated by the sponsor as Inherited until re-qualified.

19 RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS

19.01 To the extent permitted by law, Forever, its directors, officers, shareholder, employees, assigns and agents (collectively referred to as “Associates”) shall not be liable for, and the Distributors release Forever and its Associates from and waives all claims, for any loss of profits, indirect, direct, special or consequential damages, and for any other losses incurred or suffered by Distributors as a result of: (a) Distributor’s breach of their Forever Distributorship Agreement of Forever Company Policies and Procedures; (b) the

These Marks are of great value to Forever and are supplied to each Distributor for each Distributor’s use in an expressly authorized manner only.
(c) Distributors are not to advertise Forever products in any way other than through the advertising or promotional materials made available to Distributors by Forever and materials pre-approved by an authorized officer of Forever. Distributors agree not to use any written, printed, recorded or any other material in advertising, promoting or describing the product or Forever marketing program, or in any other manner, any material which has not been copyrighted and supplied by Forever, unless such material has been submitted to Forever and approved in writing by Forever before being disseminated, published or displayed. Forever Distributors hereby agree to make no disparaging representations about Forever, the products, the Forever compensation plan or income potentials.

(i) Further Restrictive Covenants. In consideration to Forever for the receipt of Trade Secret or Confidential Information, the Distributor inherently agrees that for the term of the Forever Distributorship, the Distributor shall not take or encourage any action, the purpose or effect of which would be to circumvent, breach, interfere with or diminish the value or benefit of Forever's contractual relationships with any Forever Distributor. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, for the term of the Distributorship, the Distributor agrees not to directly or indirectly, contact, solicit, persuade, enroll, sponsor or accept any Forever Distributor, Forever customer or anyone who has been a Forever Distributor or Customer for the last twelve (12) months, into, or to encourage any such person in any way to promote, opportunities in marketing programs of any direct sales company other than Forever.
