Love What You Do

What would you say if I told you that I haven't worked in a long time? Of course, I've spent time at the office working on new policies and improvements to our business and traveled all over the world to meet you. But I haven't worked. The truth of the matter is, if you love what you do, you'll never work a day in your life.

Apple founder Steve Jobs had the right idea about work, life and the ability to make a difference:

“Your work is going to fill a large part of your life and the only way to be truly satisfied is to do what you believe is great work. The only way to do great work is to love what you do.”

Truly loving what you do is a verb. It's a doing thing. It's hard, if not impossible, to love impassively. Roll up your sleeves. Put your shoulder to the wheel and engage. You'll find that loving what you do comes naturally. There will be obstacles to overcome, but that's what life is all about – growing stronger.

I hope each of you wake up in the morning loving what you do and understand that you have been given the unique ability to positively impact the lives of others. I hope you Smile. And if you're not smiling, or others around you aren't smiling, ask yourself what you can do to change it.

Love what you do. Cherish and be passionate about the people that support you along the way and discover that work suddenly starts feeling more like purpose.

Forever Yours,

Rex Maughan
CEO

message from

Rick & Eve Beeton

Country Managers - Southern Africa
South Africa, Namibia, Swaziland, Lesotho,
Botswana, Mozambique, Zambia, Zimbabwe and Malawi

It's almost time for us to host the Global Rally in Johannesburg on the 22nd and the 23rd April. This is going to be the biggest FOREVER event ever to be held on the African Continent. Make sure that you and your teams are part of it! At this stage, we are expecting 12,000 people at the Ticketpro Dome in Johannesburg.

900 Chairman's Bonus Cheques will be given away by Rex and Gregg Maughan. The Chairman's Bonus Qualifiers from around the world have reached record-breaking heights in their FOREVER Businesses during the past year, so we can expect to see the BIGGEST cheques that FOREVER has ever given away!

New products will be launched and there will be training and testimonials by the Forever World Leaders. Another very exciting announcement is that "Freshly Ground" our Homegrown South African Group, will be performing at the Rally!

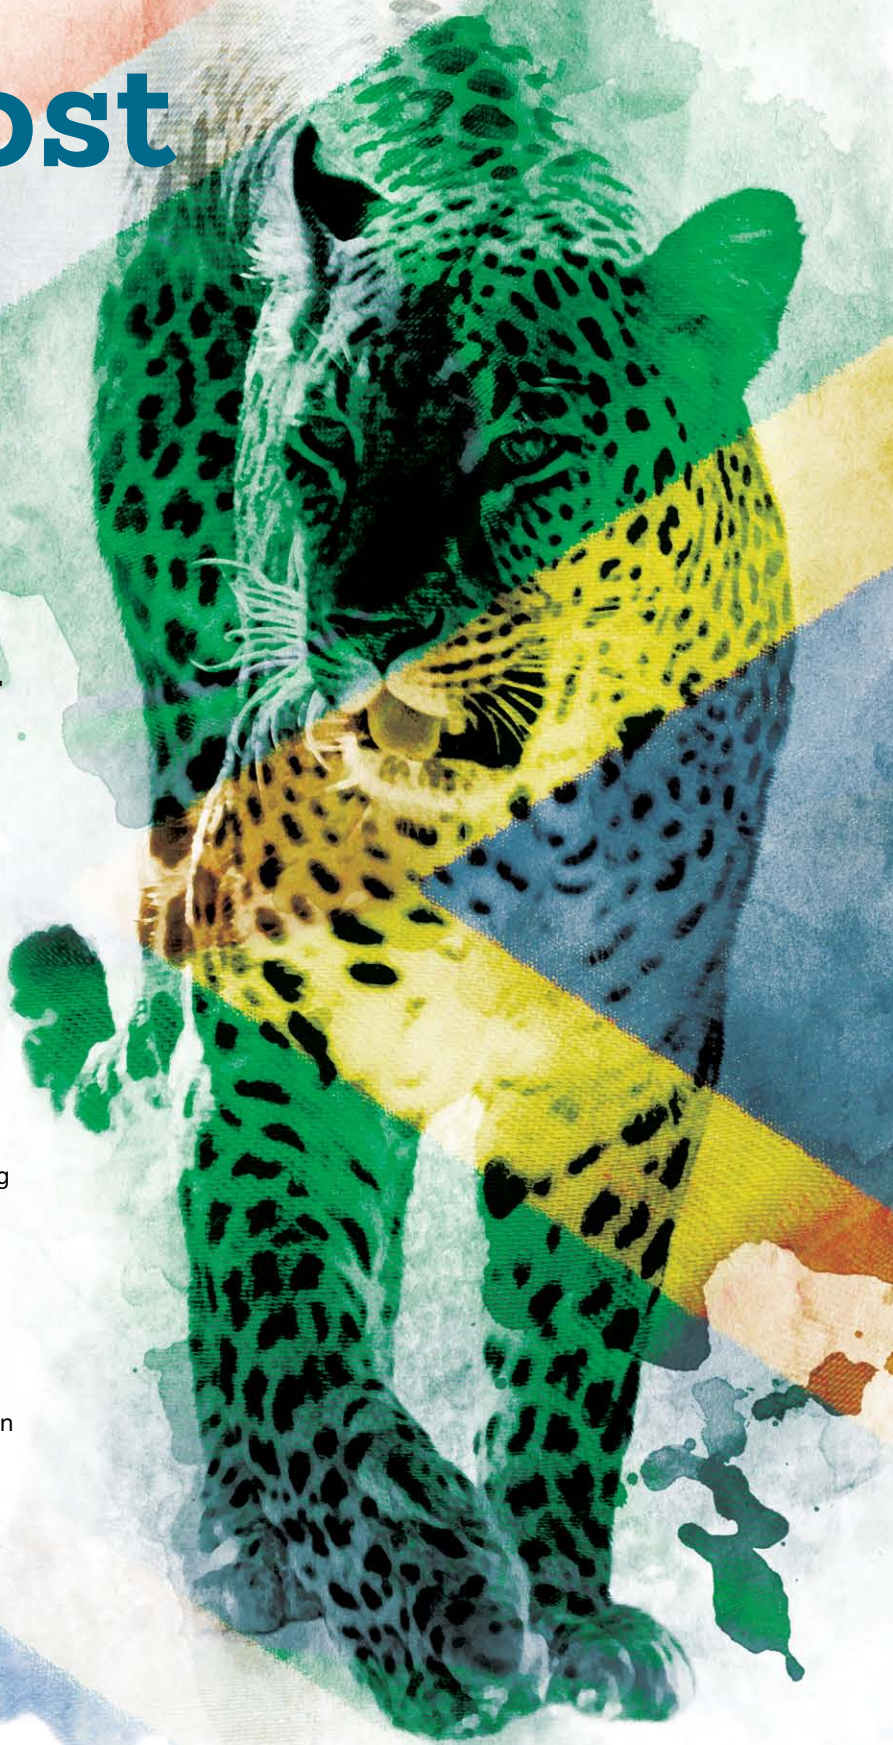

Make sure to book your online Global Rally tickets soon! (Details for online ticket purchases are featured on pages 26 & 27 in this magazine).

Do not miss out on this incredible event!

Best Regards,

Rick and Eve

PACK FOR Phineas

Aidan O'Hare
Executive Vice President,
Europe & Marketing

During our last visit to Johannesburg, we met a unique and inspiring young man, Phineas. Phineas was our driver and tour guide that day. I will never forget him.

I wrote in my journal the night after we met:

Phineas is a 45-year-old father of two, born in Soweto just before the 1976 uprising. He was our guide around Johannesburg for the day. I loved spending time with him. He was optimistic and grateful, despite growing up in the slums. His generosity and love of his own people was incredible to experience. I was genuinely moved by his charisma and example. He constantly shares these pithy and powerful observations. So, Nick and I coined the phrase, "The Wisdoms of Phineas!"

A couple of his comments... "More money, more troubles!", "AIDS – if you are not infected you are affected." There were so many more... I just couldn't write fast enough!

At the end of our day together both Nick and I felt compelled to help him out a little. He was thrilled and later came back to show me the new work shoes that he had bought with the money we gave him.

"Now I have Sunday shoes and work shoes, what more does a man want!"

I was humbled, and then I cried!

As part of our tour that day, we drove through an area called Orlando, one of the divisions of the Soweto Township. The people there live in small shacks and the kids run freely and happily along the dirt streets. A group of these young, smiling children stopped us and greeted Phineas. They were obviously familiar with each other, and banter quickly ensued.

It was so cool to watch their interaction. I was quickly enthralled as they sang, chatted and almost danced with each other. They appeared to be in some kind of negotiation. The issue swiftly became apparent – Phineas only had one coin to give and the children were trying to work out how they could split it fairly amongst each other.

My heart soared as I watched a man with so little to give, give so freely of what he had, and how the kids were unwilling to take it unless it was shared equally.

So, right there in those muddy puddles, Pack For Phineas was born. In a few months, thousands of us are going to be flying in to South Africa. Most of us are fortunate that we have plenty and are able to give. We are asking you to go into your closets and cupboards and pack a few extra items into your bag. We will have collection bins in your hotel to collect these items and at the end of the week, we are going back to Orlando with Phineas to take all that you have brought to those kids and their families. If it takes one trip, great. If it takes 100, AWESOME!

Here are some of the items you can pack:

- ☐ School Supplies
- ☐ Shoes
- ☐ Shirts
- ☐ Shorts
- ☐ Jeans
- ☐ Sweaters
- ☐ Jackets
- ☐ Toys
